

A Little History

Portland Dance Academy home of the Pacific Festival Ballet has been part of the Portland area for 20 years. As one of the leading dance schools in the region, we offer Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Hip Hop, Flamenco, and Irish Step. Our teachers have over 100 years of cumulative experience to bring the most diverse and professional instruction in the Metro area. Our yearly programs include a Summer Intensive for ballet, Summer Performance Camps, Master Classes with renowned teachers in ballet, tap and jazz, summer recitals, and of course the famed "Nutcracker" during the holiday season.

John Gardner, Artistic Director, brings a lifetime of experience to his staff and students. Mr. Gardner has danced with American Ballet Theatre, San Francisco Ballet, and Hamburg State Ballet. Mr. Gardner has been on the teaching faculty of the Universities of Utah, Texas and Illinois.

A Fairy Tale Summer

Portland Dance Academy/Pacific Festival Ballet is pleased to announce our wonderful Summer Camps being presented again for 2008. These camps are for children 5-12 years old and include a performance each Friday for friends and family. All camps include dance, drama, music and craft costuming. Every student has a chance to perform. Each child is a star!

This year's stories are:

Sleeping Beauty July 7-11

A dance camp based on the story of a Princess who is cursed at birth and lives with three fairies until her 18th birthday. She pricks her finger on a spindle and falls asleep until rescued by true love.

The Wizard of Oz July 21-25

A musical theatre camp based on the story of Dorothy finding herself lost in the land of Oz. Will she get home? Not if the Wicked Witch of the East has her way.

Peter Pan July 28-Aug. 1

A dance camp based on the story of Peter Pan and the Lost Boys as they're joined by Wendy, Peter, and John. With fairy's and pirates and crocodiles.

Children should wear:
Leotard
Tights
Ballet Shoes

Children should bring:
Dance Shoes
Sack Lunch
Snack

Extra Childcare will be available from 8:30am-10am and from 3:00pm-5:00pm at a rate of $8.00 per hour to be signed up for and paid for in advance.

Elise Ericksen has been instructing young dancers for 9 years. Ms. Ericksen has B.A. in dance from St. Olaf College. She has taught at several dance schools in the Portland area as well as in Northfield, MN. While training with the Vashon Dance Institute and Dance! Vashon in Washington, she performed such roles as the Sugar Plum Fairy, Firebird, Alice (from Alice in Wonderland) and many others. She has also choreographed and produced two full length ballets; The Year of the Fairies and Hansel and Gretel. Elise currently teaches ballet, tap and jazz to dancers age 3 through adult.
